

Contents of Idaho's Forest Exchange Box

Places: Idaho's trees and forests

- Trees of Idaho booklet
- Look to the Forest: Look to the Future—Idaho forest facts brochure
- Idaho Forests: From Lumberjacks to Lasersaws—student reader, 4th grade Idaho history
- Poster—Miracle at Work, featuring wood products and Idaho's major softwood trees
- Poster—Blueprint of a Miracle, featuring western white pine, and forest management
- Idaho Tree Cookies collection
- Native Idaho Tree Seed collection—provided by the SAVE Club at Lewiston High School, Lewiston, Idaho. Teacher and Project Learning Tree facilitator: Deanna Kinziger.
- Cones: Western white pine and serotinous lodgepole pine
- Return of the Giants—booklet sharing the saga of Idaho's state tree, western white pine.
- The Great 1910 Fires of Idaho and Montana—U.S. Forest Service publication
- Leaf fossil from White Bird Hill—Evidence of a less-arid Idaho dominated by broadleaf trees
- Pictures of a few of the wildlife who inhabit Idaho's forests.

People & Idaho's forests

- Feature about award-winning teacher and Project Learning Tree facilitator, Jane Thornes.
- Tree Tops Valley—Interview with Urban Forester, Philip Shinn, conducted by Kaylie McIntosh, Lewiston High School student. What a difference trees make!
- When the Mountains Roared: Stories of the 1910 Fires—U.S. Forest Service publication
- Idaho Forest Practices Act—rules book, Idaho Dept. of Lands
- Society of American Foresters—Inland Empire Society overview
- Society of American Foresters—Intermountain Society newsletter
- Conference info: Climate Change, Bioenergy and Sustaining Forests in Idaho & Montana
- Timber license plate (proceeds fund reforestation and forest education projects)
- State of the Timber Industry--2011
- Winning posters: Arbor Day poster contest—Idaho 5th graders (including 2 national winners!)
- Idaho's Working Forests—DVD
- Pictures of a few of the many recreational activities enjoyed in Idaho's forests

Forest Products (a small sample of the many forest products made in Idaho)

- Paperboard sample—Clearwater Paper Corporation
- Formaldehyde Free Particleboard sample—Plummer Forest Products
- Western redcedar plank—milled by Steve & Janet Funk, Edgewater Properties. Idaho Tree Farmers of the Year—2010.
- University of Idaho Biobased Materials Lab—information sheet
- Common uses of Idaho's softwood species
- Veneer samples—Ceda-Pine Veneer, Inc.
- Wood stove pellets—Lignetics
- Wooden matches—used to be made from Idaho's western white pines. (Not anymore!)
- And an Idaho Potato! Wait--what does an Idaho potato have to do with Idaho forests? Find out inside the box!

Giveaway (Help yourself--while they last!)

- Western White Pine/Look to the Forest bookmark